

THE 5 ELEMENTS

In ancient times, it was believed that everything in the known world was made from one of the 5 earthly elements: water, earth, wood, fire, and metal. Each element brings it's own unique characteristics which, if properly balanced, provide the building blocks for all living things.

Using this concept, we've put focus and attention on both specifically targeted areas, and the collective interaction of those areas. Our complete Remo Nutrients feed system provides a harmonious balance of essential vitamins, minerals, and extracts that your plants need to thrive.
